

Will they bother to vote in 2025?

Yes, if we make voting make sense.

Why would young people be inspired to vote
when Canada's antiquated system...

- fails to give voters equal votes
- fails to give voice to new ideas and new solutions
- fails to give us the representation we want
- fails to make politicians accountable to voters
- fails to create Parliaments that reflect the diversity of Canada
- fails to ensure all laws are approved by MPs representing a majority of voters
- fails to give young people a reason to vote?

Fair Representation
Vote équitable
Canada au Canada

Canada needs a fair and democratic voting system now!

If Canada adopts a fair voting system based on proportional representation:

- Voters will have equal votes and all votes will really matter
- Parliament will represent all of us – young and old, women and men, rural and urban, left and right
- Parties will get the portion of seats they truly deserve – no more, no less
- Government will be more accountable to the majority, particularly on the most important issues of the day (the economy, environment, energy, health care, etc.)
- In summary: voting will make sense for everyone!
