

Politicians do not have to scramble to appeal to women, just give us PR so we can elect at least as many women as Afghanistan and Iraq.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 5, 2008 ★ TORONTO STAR

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S WEEK < EDUCATION < CANAI

COMMONS OVATION FOR GALLERY GUESTS

TOM HANSON/THE CANADIAN PRESS

From left, Afghanistan MPs Safia Sediqi, Safura Elkhani, Fawzia Koofi, Nasima Neyazi, Fariba Kakar and Sabrina Saqib acknowledge a standing ovation as they are recognized by the Speaker in the House of Commons yesterday.

Politicians scramble to appeal to women

Meeting with Afghan MPs just one event planned as poll shows the political gender gap persists

SUSAN DELACOURT

tives had 38 per cent support among men and 30 per cent among women, while the Liberals have 24 per cent support from men and 32

Afghanistan =28%
Iraq = 26%
Canada =21%